

JITASHA JAIN

Digital Marketer & Creative Designer

A digital marketer in the making, with a designer's eye and an engineer's mindset. I help brands grow through a mix of creativity, strategy, and smart use of technology.

About Me

I'm a B.Tech graduate who found her passion in digital marketing and design. With a mix of creativity, data-driven thinking, and tech know-how, I craft campaigns and visuals that connect brands with people. Always curious, always learning — I believe marketing is about turning ideas into stories that inspire action.

What I Do

SEO & Content Strategy

I make content visible by aligning it with what people are searching for.

Data-Driven Marketing

I track performance and fine-tune campaigns to deliver results.

Creative Design

From event creatives to brand visuals, I bring ideas to life with Canva & Figma.

Tech-Enabled Approach

With my coding basics, I can bridge marketing with web & digital tech.

Social Media Storytelling

I create campaigns that don't just get likes, but spark engagement.
