CONTENT & COPYWRITER

ABOUT ME

Hello! I'm Prachi Kadam. I started as an HR recruiter, but now I'm a professional overthinker who loves turning thoughts & ideas into content.

My brain runs on a creative itch and a strong cup of chai, sometimes while binge-watching K-dramas with a bowl of ramen.

With a background in HR, I've gained insight into how people think, which helps me understand your brand's goals and vision more deeply.

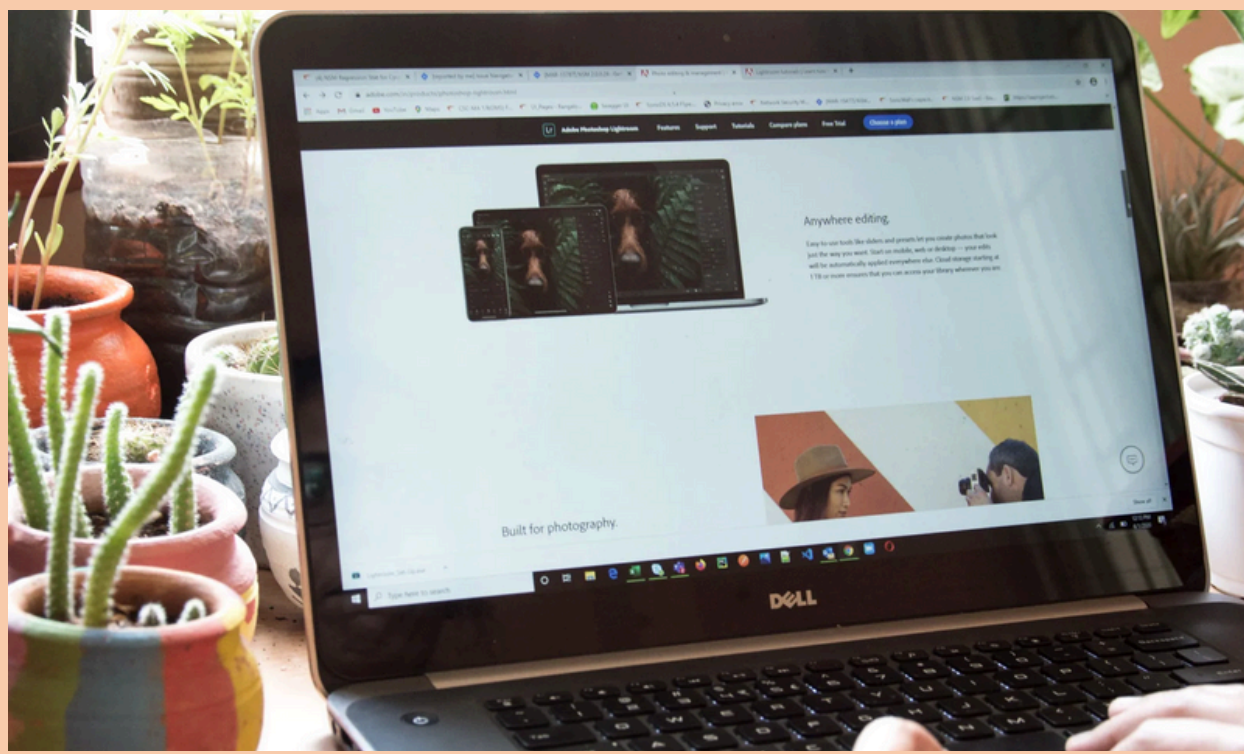

I love writing about pop culture, humor, Asian dramas, and book reviews, and creating content that connects.
